The Property

Occupying a generous plot on a quiet residential street in the heart of Caersws, this deceptively spacious four-bedroom semi-detached home has remained within the same family for decades and now comes to the market with no onward chain, ready for its next chapter.

Inside, the scale of the accommodation is immediately apparent. The ground floor comprises a sitting room, a spacious living room with fireplace and built-in shelving to either side, and a large kitchen/diner fitted with a range of light wood units, gas hob, double oven and tiled splashbacks, with a breakfast bar providing a natural divide between the kitchen and dining areas. A utility room sits off the kitchen with its own external door, while a bright conservatory to the rear connects with both the kitchen and living room, drawing in plenty of natural light and providing an additional reception space overlooking the garden. Storage has been thoughtfully incorporated throughout the house.

To the first floor are four bedrooms arranged off the landing. The principal bedroom is particularly generous in size, while bedrooms two and three are both comfortable doubles, all benefitting from built-in storage. The fourth bedroom is ideal as a nursery, child's bedroom or home office. The family bathroom is fitted with a bath, walk-in shower, WC and wash basin.

Externally, the property occupies a generous plot with gardens to both the front and rear. The front garden is laid mainly to lawn and could, subject to the necessary consents, offer potential for the creation of off-road parking. The rear garden is a particular feature of the property, extending to a substantial size and laid mainly to lawn with a paved patio area immediately behind the house. Enclosed by fencing and hedging, it provides a private and spacious outdoor area with plenty of room for families, gardening or simply enjoying the setting.

Offering excellent proportions, a large garden, no onward chain and clear scope for modernisation and personalisation throughout, 12 Maesawelon presents an excellent opportunity to acquire a family home with genuine potential in a well-connected Mid Wales village.

The Location

Caersws is a lively village with a strong sense of community and a surprising range of amenities for its size. The long-established Caersws Village Club acts as a local hub for social events, live music, and sports, while the village's two pubs, fish and chip shop, petrol station, butcher, post office, and convenience store cover most daily needs. There's also a well-equipped playground and a primary school, making it a practical spot for families.

The village has a proud footballing tradition, with Caersws FC being a long-standing part of the Welsh football scene and central to village life.

Caersws is well connected via its railway station on the Cambrian Line, with direct links to Newtown, Shrewsbury, Machynlleth, and the coast. Newtown, just 6 miles away, offers supermarkets, healthcare, a choice of secondary schools, and a further education college. Llanidloes is around 10 miles west and provides additional amenities, including a high school, independent shops, and a lively arts and food scene. For outdoor pursuits, Llyn Clywedog is within easy reach, offering walking trails, sailing, and fishing, while the beaches of Aberdyfi and Borth are just over an hour's drive away.
