Land At Kingston Bagpuize

About the Site

This site represents an exceptional development opportunity in a highly attractive position within the sought after village of Kingston Bagpuize near Abingdon in Oxfordshire.

Opportunities of this calibre are rare. In more than twenty years of reviewing land for potential residential projects, this would sit comfortably within the top five plots I have encountered. Extending to approximately 3/4 of an acre and forming a near square, the land has the feel of a hidden garden. It is fully enclosed, very private and has a calm and peaceful atmosphere that is immediately noticeable on arrival.

The existing trees on the site can be removed if required, and the overall layout provides genuine potential for the creation of three large luxury properties, subject to securing the appropriate permissions.

The land is offered for sale freehold on an unconditional basis, with offers invited in line with the guide price of one million pounds, give or take.

This opportunity is expected to attract considerable interest. Viewings are available strictly by prior arrangement.

Outline consent is already in place for two substantial executive homes. Planning was granted by Vale of White Horse District Council under reference P23/V1986/0. For a copy of the consent, please contact Taylor and Co.
