Location

The historic seaside town of South Queensferry is situated on the south bank of the Firth of Forth, within easy reach of Edinburgh City Centre (approximately 10 miles) by road or rail. Indeed, the town is within comfortable commuting distance of Scotland's principal towns and cities via the central motorway network. Although now a sizeable community 'Queensferry' retains its village charm and individuality, epitomised by its narrow rambling main street and awe-inspiring views of the Queensferry Crossing, the Road and Rail bridges. There are Post Office services, both primary and secondary schools and a wealth of shopping facilities ranging from delightful little galleries and speciality shops to a Tesco supermarket and a Marks & Spencer food outlet. In addition to sailing and water sports at the renowned Port Edgar Marina, several alternative sport and leisure options are available locally, including several golf courses and a leisure centre/ swimming pool offering a wide programme of activities for children and adults alike. The property is well situated for pleasant walk to local cafes and restaurants. The location is also popular with walkers, joggers, and cyclists with a number of off-road routes immediately available through the grounds of Dalmeny Estate, Dundas Castle Estate and Hopetoun House, or via the old railway line/ cycle path.
