Tucked away on a peaceful cul-de-sac in the popular area of Compton, this enchanting period home offers a rare blend of character, warmth and beautifully curated outdoor spaces. A pretty front garden sets the tone, leading into a welcoming entrance hallway where rich, warm floorboards flow throughout much of the property, creating an immediate sense of charm and homeliness.

The inviting lounge features a beautiful bay window and cosy wood burning stove, opening seamlessly into the dining room where delightful views over the rear garden can be enjoyed. The kitchen is well appointed with plentiful cabinetry, space for a breakfast table, a useful storage cupboard and direct access out to the garden.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom benefits from a bespoke wall of fitted wardrobes, with walls primed and ready for a purchaser to add their own decorative touch. There is a further generous double bedroom, along with a third double bedroom enjoying elevated views across the surrounding area and beyond. These are served by a family bathroom fitted with a shower over the bath.

A door from the garden leads to an extensive basement running the full length of the property, offering exceptional versatility and ideal for storage, a workshop, studio, hobby room, gym or potential home office space.

The landscaped rear garden is truly magical, a winding pathway reveals an abundance of unusual plants, mature trees and charming garden structures, all leading to a wonderful decked terrace perfect for al fresco dining and entertaining. Beyond the garden lies a large community garden, lovingly maintained by neighbouring residents, creating a unique and tranquil haven for all to enjoy.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this captivating home is brimming with character, quirkiness and timeless appeal, presenting a rare opportunity to acquire a truly special property in a secluded yet highly desirable setting. A viewing is highly recommended.
