Step inside this well presented three double bedroom 1930s terraced home, perfectly suited to families, first time buyers, and investors alike. The accommodation is arranged over three floors and offers well proportioned, versatile living space throughout.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by a sizeable reception room featuring built in understairs storage. To the rear of the home lies the true heart of the property, a spacious kitchen/diner complete with an impressive central island, ample worktop space, and a range of cupboard units, creating an ideal setting for both everyday living and entertaining. This room completes the ground floor. The first floor comprises two generously sized bedrooms and a three piece family bathroom. Occupying the top floor is the final double bedroom, which benefits from a Juliet balcony that floods the room with natural light, along with an en-suite shower room.

Externally, the property boasts a well maintained garden leading to a garage at the rear. Part of the garage has been sectioned to create a useful utility area, while the remaining space offers excellent potential to be converted into a home office or outbuilding (subject to the relevant planning permissions), or simply utilised as storage. Further benefits include off-street parking.

Homes within this popular residential area are consistently in high demand, and it is easy to see why, with its welcoming, family friendly atmosphere. The property falls within the catchment area for highly regarded schools including St Ignatius College and Worcesters Primary School.

The location also offers excellent transport connections, with quick access to the A10 providing direct routes to the M25 and A406. Enfield Town Centre and Enfield Retail Parks are just a short drive away, offering a wide range of supermarkets, popular retail stores, and dining options.
