Rare opportunity to rent a well presented top floor flat, within a former converted stable block, in the popular area of Culloden in Inverness. The lounge is bright and spacious with ample space for dining. The kitchen is equipped with a fridge/freezer, electric oven and hob and washing machine. The double bedroom is to the rear and benefits from fitted storage. A good sized bathroom, with shower over the bath completes the accommodation. Double glazing and new electric storage heating is throughout. There is a security entry system for the building, communal private parking to the front and natural grounds to the rear with open outlooks to Culloden House. Pets are negotiable.
