Description

A magnificent and spacious two-bedroom, two-bathroom split-level apartment set within a grand white stucco-fronted period conversion on one of South Kensington's most prestigious garden squares. Arranged over the raised ground and lower ground floors, this property boasts exceptional period character throughout. It comprises a grand reception room with high ceilings, wooden flooring, and a feature fireplace, overlooking Cornwall Gardens, as well as a contemporary eat-in kitchen with unique column features. The raised ground floor hosts a vast principal bedroom suite with an en-suite shower room and a guest cloakroom, while the lower level offers a second double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and direct access to a private patio.

Situation

Cornwall Gardens is a highly sought-after address in South Kensington (SW7), located moments from the amenities and transport links of Gloucester Road (District, Circle, and Piccadilly Lines). It is perfectly positioned for easy access to Hyde Park, Kensington Gardens, and the world-class museums of South Kensington, as well as the array of shops, restaurants, and cafes along the Gloucester Road and Cromwell Road.
