

LAKELAND HOUSE

BLENHEIM

A HAVEN OF TRADITIONAL SPLENDOUR AWAITS

WELCOME TO LAKELAND HOUSE, WHERE LUXURY, GRANDEUR AND QUALITY BLEND HARMONIOUSLY TO CREATE AN EXCEPTIONAL LIVING EXPERIENCE.

Set within a substantial plot of approximately 13 acres and surrounded by expansive lawns, this five bedroomed family residence offers outstanding accommodation which has been meticulously crafted to an exacting specification with premium materials and timeless style.

Traditional elegance is showcased throughout the home.

From beautifully carved marble and wooden mantelpieces, to ornate moulded ceilings with decorative coving and American solid oak large sash windows, 225cm x 102cm internal panelled doors, 24cm door casings, 12cm architraves, 23cm high skirtings. Complementing the classic features are modern conveniences including wireless controlled under floor heating and heated towel rails in the bathrooms, providing effortless temperature control and year-round comfort.

Wrought iron electric gates set between tall pillars open to a long, tree-lined driveway, which is flanked by six Victorian-style cast iron lamp posts, setting an impressive tone. An American oak entrance door sits beneath a cast stone portico, opening to a welcoming reception hall.

The centrepiece of the reception hall is the magnificent grand oak staircase, which leads up to a fabulous galleried landing. Four reception rooms of sizeable proportions provide beautiful environments for relaxing and entertaining, with focal point fireplaces in each room. The chimneys connected to the drawing room and sitting room fireplaces are rated to accept gas, coal or wood, making it possible to install log/multi-fuel burners. A wonderful dining kitchen features granite work surfaces, a central island and an oil Aga for cooking with an attached Aga companion with a four-ring gas hob and two electric ovens.

Positioned on the first floor of this exquisite home are five exceptionally spacious bedroom suites, including the master suite which has a dressing room and walk-in wardrobe.

Considered the 'East Wing' of the home and situated adjacent to the dining kitchen, this wing comprises a secondary entrance hall, useful utility room, shower room, triple garage and boiler room.

The 'West Wing', situated adjacent to the study/library, offers exciting scope for a purchaser to have the works fully completed to the planned existing layout of the large luxurious indoor swimming pool complex within the sale price of £2,500,000 for the property. Alternatively, other options, such as self-contained living accommodation, entertainment room/gym, open plan or sub-divided offices, children's playroom, cinema room or dance studio, are subject to negotiations on detail and final cost agreement between the Vendor and Purchaser.

Surrounding Lakeland House are extensive lawned grounds and a south-facing stone flagged seating terrace, which spans the width of the rear elevation. The gardens present a superb opportunity for a new owner to enhance and tailor the landscaping to suit their individual vision and lifestyle. Bordering the western boundary is a picturesque fishing lake, offering a stunning backdrop and uninterrupted views across the gardens.

Lakeland House is located on the boundary of Nottinghamshire, Lincolnshire and South Yorkshire, south of the B6045 Mattersey to Ranskill Road, 4 miles south of Bawtry. There is easy access to the South Yorkshire conurbations of Sheffield, Rotherham and Doncaster, plus convenient connections to AIM at Blyth (approx. 4 miles) and the M18 leading onto the M1 (approx. 13 miles). Main Line rail networks allow access to London Kings Cross in around a 90-minute journey from Retford Station. Regional airports such as Doncaster Sheffield Airport (pending reopening) is approximately 7 miles, Humberside, Leeds Bradford, East Midlands and Manchester are all within acceptable driving distance.

The two villages of Mattersey and Ranskill comprise two primary schools, two post offices and a public house. The popular market town of Bawtry, which is well-known for its host of restaurants, bars and boutique shops, is under 10 minutes away by car. A short drive away is Blyth, which offers additional amenities. Worksop and Retford are accessible in under 20 minutes, each with supermarkets and many shopping facilities. A selection of independent schools are available nearby and include Wellow House School, Worksop College, Ranby House Prep School and Hill House School/Sixth Form. Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School in Gainsborough and the Elizabethan Academy in Retford are also highly regarded state schools.

Within the surrounding localities are a range of outdoor attractions, such as Yorkshire Wildlife Park, Sundown Adventureland and Langold Country Park, together with a variety of golf courses in Gainsborough, Retford, Worksop and Doncaster.

EXTERIOR & GARDENS

From Ranskill Road, an impressive welcome is provided to Lakeland House by tall brick walling and intercom operated electric gates which have been architecturally designed. The gates open to a sweeping gravelled driveway, which is flanked by established trees and six Victorian-style cast iron lampposts leading to the left side of the dwelling, where there is the East Wing.

Immediately to the East Wing of the property is a gravelled parking area for several vehicles with exterior lighting. Access is gained to the integral triple garage.

A stone flagged path with exterior lighting leads around the whole of the property, and from the front elevation provides access to the secondary entrance door to the East Wing, and then to the main entrance door, which sits beneath a cast stone portico.

The path leads to the West Wing of the property and continues to the rear.

To the rear is a substantial stone flagged seating terrace with exterior lighting, which has an advantageous south-facing aspect and ample space for comfortable outdoor seating. Access can be gained to the study/library, dining kitchen, secondary entrance hall, boiler room within the East Wing and the West Wing of the property.

Surrounding Lakeland House to all sides are wrap-around lawned gardens that incorporate many varieties of established trees. The western boundary borders a fishing lake, providing a lovely outlook and peaceful environment. The boundaries are enclosed by fencing and mature trees.
