SITUATION

Located to the east of Exeter, within the East Devon countryside, Farringdon is a picturesque hamlet, just one mile from an excellent farm shop including fish and butchery departments as well as a café, the area provides excellent facilities including walking, riding and cycling. Though in a rural location, Exeter, the regional capital of the South West, is 7 miles away boasting great business facilities together with restaurants, cafés and wine bars. The city is well served with a good range of leisure and cultural amenities, including substantial shopping facilities. The Exe Estuary is 6 miles away and the coastal towns of Exmouth, Budleigh Salterton and Sidmouth are also within easy reach.

Communication links are good, with the M5 accessible to the west and A30 to the north. There are regular rail services to central London from Exeter in just over 2 hours. Exeter International Airport provides a number of domestic and international flights.

ACCOMMODATION

Denbow Thatch is an enchanting Grade II Listed period home, believed to date back to the 15th Century and forming part of the original Denbow Farm. Rich in character and history, the property retains an abundance of period features including exposed timbers, inglenook fireplace and a traditional thatched roof, whilst offering spacious and versatile accommodation.

The property is arranged over two floors and provides an excellent balance of reception space and practical family living. The welcoming entrance hall leads to a generous dual-aspect sitting/dining room, a superb room for entertaining with views over the gardens. The spacious kitchen forms the heart of the home, fitted with a range of units with an electric AGA, there is ample space for informal dining with an adjoining pantry. Nearby is a useful utility room with doors leading into the garage and a small inner courtyard. Completing the ground floor is a 4th bedroom with an ensuite shower room currently used as a workshop.

On the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a particularly impressive room of a generous size complemented by an ensuite shower room. The accommodation is served by a family bathroom making the property well suited to family living or visiting guests.

Outside, the property is approached via a private driveway providing extensive parking and access to the detached double garage. The mature gardens surround the house and offer a delightful combination of lawns, established flower beds, shrubs and trees, creating a private and picturesque setting that complements the charm of this historic thatched home.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a private driveway leading to the rear of the house and providing extensive parking and access to the double garage with metal up and over door and electric charging point. The mature gardens surround the house and offer a delightful combination of lawns, established flower beds, shrubs and trees, creating a private and picturesque setting that complements the charm of this historic thatched home.
